Later from Europe.

By the arrival of the Brother Jonathan, on Monday, we have San Francisco papers to 1st inst., and intelligence from Europe to 31st August.

The news from Europe, transmitted by telegraph to New Orleans and received here via Tehuantepec—is to August 31, eleven days later than advices per Overland Mail.

The Paris correspondent of the London Advertiser writes that the French Minister of Marine has ordered fifty transports of war, capable of carrying 2000 men each, to rendezvous and hold themselves in readiness for further orders, off Dover, by the month of January. The story however is generally discredited by the English press and people.

The same writer says that a French corps of engineers has received special orders to proceed at once to the survey of the whole channel coast of France from Bologne to Calais.

The latest dispatches received from Paris state that the question touching the Italian Duchies would be removed from the Zurich Conference, and their future Government would be arranged directly by the Emperor Napoleon and the Emperor of Austria without the assistance of their Ministers.

Paris advices now contradict the report that Marshal Neil and Marshal Canrobert had been engaged in a duel.

The project for increasing the already vast fortifications at Antwerp have been adopted by the Belgian Chamber of deputies.

A French corps d'armes, under command of Marshal MacMahon, is rapidly concentrating on the frontiers of Belgium, the headquarters being at Lille. In political circles it was thought this threatening movement was occasioned by the projected additions, on a large scale, to the fortifications of Antwerp.

The Emperor Napoleon has given orders to discharge and send home, this month, 20,000 soldiers whose term of service will expire at the close of the year.

Reports were current that General Changarnier, one of the French exiles, has refused to accept the amnesty permission to return to France, proclaimed recently by the Emperor Napoleon.

The great encampment of the triumphant Army of Italy at St. Maur, near Paris, was broken up immediately after the fetes, and the various corps ordered to various parts of the Empire.

Italy.

A defensive league has been formed between Tuscany, Bologna and Modena, the object of which is to prevent the restoration of the Italian government, and to lay down a basis for assimilating their institutions more in conformity with each other.

The national Assembly of Modena has confirmed Farina as dictator of the Duchy, and empowered him to borrow five millions of money for the purpose of restoring to liberty the political prisoners carried away by Francis I.

Deputations from the Duchies of Tuscany and Modena, which had unanimously asked to be annexed to the Kingdom of Sardinia, had waited upon the King of Turin.

It is stated that the King replied to the deputations that he would not accept even provisionally the annexation of any of the Duchies to his dominions without consulting France and the other great powers of Europe.

As to the Italians, generally, they continue to maintain an attitude of the greatest firmness in regard to their national independence. Order, however generally prevailed, especially in the Duchies, where the hostility to the return of the Austrian Archduke continued unabated.

A petition is in circulation in the Duchy of Savoy asking to be annexed to France. It pleads the identity of race, language, manners, and customs, and national sympathy, and interests. In conclusion, referring to the proposed consolidation of the Italian people, it says: "Savoy is not Italian, nor, indeed, can it be." The movement however, has given great offence to the Piedmontese government, which has suspended a local journal for advocating it.

The Zurich Conference.

Advices from Zurich, via Paris, state that the affairs of the Duchies are to be arranged directly between the Court of Paris and the Court of Vienna.

More favorable reports from the Peace Conference in session at Zurich had been received. It is now believed that it would come to a satisfactory agreement on all contested points.

Austria.

Dispatches from Vienna state that seven of the twelve corps d'armee of Austria are to be retained, on a war footing.

The Austrian military schools are to be reorganized after the model of those of France.

It is reported at Vienna that Prussia favors a European Congress.

Russia.

It is reported that the Cabinet of St. Petersburg is divided on the Italian question. The German party in Russia is opposed to the independence of Italy. The Emperor and the remainder of the Cabinet entertain more liberal sentiments upon the subject.

Turkey.

Advices from Constantinople report that the Sultan is sick, and announce the death of the Prince Vigorido.

England.

The offer of Mr. Lever, of the Galway steamship line, to pay $100,000 for the charter of the steamship Great Eastern on her first voyage to the United States, has been repeated.

The splendid new American built Russian war steamer General Admiral, has arrived at Portsmouth.

The report that the Prince of Wales intended visiting the Canadas, is confirmed by the arrival, on the North Briton, of several members of the household of her Majesty, Queen Victoria, and the Prince, who precede him to make the proper arrangements for his reception.

The English Government has officially tendered its congratulations to that of France for the general amnesty granted by the Emperor Napoleon to all political offenders.

From London we learn that the new

Prussian loan is considered on 'Change as partially a failure.

The new East India Government loan of £5,000,000 has been taken at rates above 97 per cent.

The London Times urges the people of Tuscany to continue their resistance to the return of the Grand Dukes, and prepare even to fight against Austrian aggression.

Queen Victoria is about to visit Scotland. Nothing has yet been done in relation to the Australian mail contract, via Panama.

The Board of Trade returns show an increase of £291,000 for August, and an increase of £9,816,000 during the past seven months, over the corresponding period last year.

The potato blight is ravaging Ireland, and doing great damage to the crops.

The shipwrights on the Tyne have made a strike, and compelled their masters to give them an increase of wages.

The great trotting race which came off on the 24th, near Liverpool, was won by the English horse Dan.

The American horses Jack Rossiter, Mountain Boy and Dreadnaught, obtained second, third, and fourth places respectively in the field of seven horses.

The previous statements in regard to the supposed failure of the Russian loan, prove to have been without foundation.

The whole of the loan has been taken mostly at London.

SAN JUAN OCCUPATION.

From our exchanges it appears that the Cabinet at Washington has supported Gen. Harney in occupying San Juan. This is exactly what was expected by those who watched the question closely; for there is no doubt that Gen. Harney sent dispatches as soon as he decided on the occupation. Capt. Pickett landed on the Is'nd July 27, and the Northern which brought from Portland the intelligence of the intention to do so on the 26th, left this port on the 26th for San Francisco. Consequently nothing but an ex parte statement has been laid before the Government at Washington. The reply of Gov. Douglas to Gen. Harney's letter of August 5th, was not written till the 13th, and therefore it did not leave for Washington till September 5th. Hence, there is no good reason for supposing that a true statement of the case would reach Washington till the middle or last of September. So if any burst of patriotism should occur before the month of November, we fear it will be so much spent air. A month hence it is extremely probable that steamers will be required to move the San Juan forces to Steilacoom or elsewhere for winter-quarters. We entertain too high an opinion of President Buchanan's Cabinet to expect it to pursue any other course.

LET THOSE LAUGH WHO WIN.

High-toned and noble-minded men tell the truth. They scorn falsehood. Emerson, the American Philosopher, says that the leading characteristic of Englishmen is their love of truth. A mere glance at the report of the last public meeting in the last issue of the "Weekly Eloquence" is sufficient to satisfy the most careless person who was present, that the report is a tissue of studied misrepresentation from beginning to end,—and that the great virtue, truth, is held in little estimation by a paper which introduced itself to the public as "high-toned" English par excellence. If in this early stage of its rickety career, it proves an adept in falsification, and unblushingly heralds to the world, for truth, its own perverted imaginings,—it is certain—should it be spared to acquire age without reformation,—that no honorable Englishman would acknowledge it as English, but point to it only as a warning. Men of small calibre resort to falsehood; whilst honest and able men trust for success to the strength of their principles, conscious that "truth will prevail." Our juvenile cotemporary would do far better to pattern after the noble virtue of Englishmen who dare manfully assert what is true, than take as its standard the truth-hating Bengalee, whose weak and effeminate nature is unable to struggle for liberty impelled by manly virtues, but who resorts only to duplicity and falsehood. The gentlemen who have been maligned by the Times' report can afford however, to adopt the motto: "Let those laugh who win."

FAIR PLAY.—In our last issue a card was published by Mr. D. B. Ring, reflecting on Mr. Carey. Whatever the merits of the affair may be, had we known that he was absent we certainly should not have lent our advertising columns to strike a blow at an absent man. If the writer of the card knew of his absence, he certainly did what we would call a cowardly trick. In seeking therefore an amende honorable we sincerely hope he was ignorant of Mr. Carey's absence.

By the arrival of the Panama we have dates from the British Provinces to Sept. 2. From a letter of the Mayor the debt of Montreal is £800,000. It lacks £87,000 to meet deficiencies. There is a tax already imposed of 7½ per cent., and it is proposed to increase it to 12½ per cent., in order to meet the liabilities of the city. There were 1500 heads of families sued for taxes, and 2000 more to be sued.

From the Atlantic States.

A dispatch from Washington, dated 4th September contains the following concerning San Juan Island:

The Government has been advised by Gen. Harney of his proceedings in taking possession of the Island of San Juan, and the steamer of to-morrow will convey to him a reply. From what has transpired here, it is reasonable to infer that the position of the administration, admits of no compromise, it being fully satisfied that the island belongs to the United States.

Gen. Harney has acquainted Gen. Scott with all the circumstances attending his occupation of the Island of San Juan. It appears that he had not been previously specially instructed to take possession, but sent troops to protect the 25 or 30 Americans residing there, who had been included in the taxation limit by the authority of Washington territory.

Our boundary Commissioner, Campbell, has no doubt about the Island belonging to the United States, but the British Commissioner made issue, and hence the protest of Governor Douglas. This subject excites much interest in official and diplomatic circles.

THE GREAT EASTERN.—The Great Eastern is expected to arrive at either New York or Portland some time this month. She will bring a thousand passengers, but has accommodations for ten thousand. Lord Stanly stated that she could carry an army of ten thousand, with munitions and stores to the East Indies, in case of another mutiny. If the experiment succeed, it may have the effect to produce a new era in navigation and carrying trade. The ship, it is supposed will go through the water with unheard of speed.

ENGLISH BARK WRECKED.—The purser of the steamship Cortes, informs the S. F. Alta, that the English barque Older, Capt. Chenouth, loaded with dye-woods, and £400,000 specie, and bound for Valparaiso, was wrecked, August 2d, at Patatvea, about 400 miles from Acapulco. In getting under way in a heavy gale and sea, she missed stays, and went ashore. Total loss. All hands were saved. Capt. Chenouth has gone to Liverpool. The ship was insured.

After a thorough examination by Lord Lyons of the coast trade question, the issue made by the British Government with the United States, as mentioned in Parliament, has been withdrawn.

CALIFORNIA.—Judge Terry has returned to San Francisco, and gave himself up to the authorities. He has been placed under bonds of $10,000 to appear and answer for killing of Senator Broderick.

Subscriptions for a monument to Mr Broderick were being raised in San Francisco.

The California papers are filled with discussions of the Pacific Railroad.

PUBLIC SERVICES.—The London Canadian News of Aug. 17th charges the Hudson's Bay Company with spreading discouraging reports, representing their territory as uninhabitable, and fit only for raising fur-bearing animals; but now that Capt. Palliser and others have shown its fitness for civilization, the Company has acknowledged that it possesses thirty-seven volumes treating minutely of the geography and resources of the country, for a period of thirty-five years. The preservation of the fur trade was the cause of keeping all information respecting the country secret. Canada has spent £10,000 in exploring their territory. Two years ago the Home Government sent out, at a large expense, Capt. Palliser, who is now in British Columbia, had the Hudson's Bay Company's archives been opened previously, these expenses could have been saved. We ask, are these the "public services" rendered to the nation to which his Excellency Gov. Douglas referred when he recommended that the Hudson's Bay Company should not be placed on an equality with every one else; but should receive the best portions of British Columbia for nothing?

The House of Assembly, owing to the absence of Mr. Yates, did not meet yesterday. It will meet on Friday at 11 A. M.

REMOVED APPROACHING MARRIAGE OF H. R. H. THE PRINCE OF WALES.—The Prince of Wales, it is confidently stated, is about to marry Princess Alexandra of Prussia, daughter of Prince Albrecht, brother of the king. The nuptials are to take place in the autumn of next year, and all the preliminaries of the contract, so it is asserted, are already settled.

LARGE TURNIP.—We were shown at T. Phelan's store on Saturday a white turnip which measured four feet eight inches in circumference, and weighed 65 lbs avoirdupois. It was raised on the farm of Mr. Van Alman, about four miles from town.
